PENNY TO BE KING IN APPOMATTOX

The penny will have plenty of power at Spencer's Drug Store next week, according to H. Y. Spencer. In fact, beginning Monday, October 15, a single penny will buy up to several dollars worth of merchandise during the following six days he reports.

The local drug store, together with other Rexall stores across the nation, celebrates the annual Rexall One Cent Sale opening Monday and continuing through the week until closing hours Saturday, October 20.

During this sale, customers may save by buying two identical Rexall items for the price of one plus a penny. This unique merchandising event was initiated many years ago by the Rexall Drug Company as a means of introducing merchandise to new customers at special low prices. The original sale proved so popular that it has been repeated annually since 1931.

COLEMAN - FERGUSON

The wedding of Miss Elizabeth Marie Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Ray Ferguson, of Appomattox and Paul Francis Coleman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lesley Coleman, of 148 Oakley Ave., Lynchburg, took place October 6 at 7 o'clock at the bride's home. Dr. Carl A. Collins performed the ceremony and a nuptial music program was played.

Decorations consisted of ferns and other greens as background for white arrangements of snapdragons, chrysanthemumms and carnations.

The bride wore a brown tweed suit with which she wore white baby orchids and used brown accessories.

Mrs. Lyle Baber was matron of honor and was attired in a beige suit with harmonizing accessories, and red carnations. James O. Newcomb Jr., of Lynchburg, was best man.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left for a short trip, and will live at 1010 Court St., Lynchburg.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School and attended Philips Business College. She now has a position in Lynchburg. Mr. Coleman is a graduate of E. C. Glass High School and is a senior at Lynchburg College.

CLOVER HILL HOME DEMONSTRATION CLUB

The Clover Hill Home Demonstration Club met Tuesday evening, Oct. 9, with Mrs. T. M. Richardson. In the absence of the president and vice-president, the secretary, Mrs. Richardson, presided.

Miss Elizabeth Pancake, Assistant Home Agent, gave ideas and showed pictures on "How to Mix Furniture of Different Periods," and also gave an interesting demonstration on "Good Home Lighting for Health and Safety." She stressed the need for diffusing bowls on all bulbs to reduce glare and showed several samples in inexpensive plastic. Booklets of tested light - conditioning recipes showing the right light for each area in the home, were given to each member.

After the meeting adjourned, an auction sale of articles brought by the members, was held. Mr. Thomas Richardson served as auctioneer. Besides being a lot of fun, the club realized $7.65 from this project. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her three daughters.

The next meeting will be in the afternoon on Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the home of Mrs. L. N. Hernecall.
